EXAMINER'S COMMENT

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, pages 8 and 9, filed January 3, 2008, with respect to the rejection of independent claims 1 and 2 under 35 U.S.C. 103 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-6, 8-11, 13 and 14 under 35 U.S.C. 103 is withdrawn. Specifically, applicant's amendment to independent claims 1 and 2 and applicant's persuasive argument that Ishikawa does not meet the limitation of central elastic bodies affixed to an outer layer sheet at the crotch portion are sufficient to overcome the standing rejection of claims 1-6, 8-11, 13 and 14 under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a).

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. Claims 1-6, 8-11, 13, 14, 17 and 18 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: A thorough search of the prior art of record did not disclose any reference, alone or in combination with other reference(s) that teaches or fairly suggests central elastic bodies that are affixed to an outer layer sheet at the crotch part positioned along the longitudinal direction of an absorbent body substantially centered in the width direction of the absorbent body.
4. The closest prior art is the combined teaching of Nakazawa et al (JP 09-313531) and Palumbo (U.S. Patent No. 5,899,894) and Ishikawa (U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2003/0040732). The combined teaching of Nakazawa and Palumbo and Ishikawa meets all of the limitations of independent claims 1 and 2 except for the limitation of central elastic bodies fixed to an outer layer sheet. Ishikawa teaches central elastic bodies as claimed, however they are attached to the backsheet and not an outer sheet, and there is no motivation to modify the combined teaching of Nakazawa and Palumbo and Ishikawa to meet this limitation because the instant central elastic bodies are present to provide elasticity to the absorbent core and the crotch portion so that the core stretches with the remainder of the diaper. Thus, moving the elastic bodies of the article of the combined teaching so as to be affixed to an outer sheet would destroy the function of an elastic absorbent core that stretches with the remainder of the diaper.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
